

I hear there is a possibility that a proposed FCC ruling will supercede the current Indiana statute regarding annoying and unwanted phone solicitations.

PLEASE do not alter the Indiana law, as it is very effective the way it is currently written. As a lover of peace and quiet and also my privacy, I very much appreciate the current Indiana law.

Thank you for the opportunity to voice my concern.

Henry M. Bane
Indianapolis, Indiana